The Charity will not tolerate any form of harassment or bullying, including but not limited to harassment based on age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex, or sexual orientation. All individuals associated with the Charity are expected to treat each other with dignity and respect. Any incidents of harassment or bullying will be taken seriously and may result in disciplinary action.

The Charity will make reasonable adjustments to accommodate the needs of individuals with disabilities or any other individuals requiring additional support. The Charity will engage in an interactive process with the individual concerned to determine the adjustments required, where feasible and within legal obligations.

f. Complaints and Grievances

The Charity will ensure that there is a clear and accessible procedure for raising complaints or grievances related to equality and diversity matters. All complaints will be handled confidentially and investigated promptly. Appropriate actions will be taken to address and resolve any legitimate concerns raised.
